

Death to the Emperor: A Gripping Historical Thriller by Simon Scarrow

In the year 69 AD, the Roman Empire is on the brink of civil war. The emperor Nero has been overthrown and killed, and three generals are vying for power: Galba, Otho, and Vitellius. Amidst the chaos, two legionaries, Cato and Macro, find themselves on a perilous mission to protect the young emperor Otho.

Cato and Macro are both veterans of the legions, and they have fought together for many years. They are loyal to Otho, and they are determined to keep him safe. But their mission is not without its challenges. They must navigate through a treacherous political landscape, and they must face the threats of assassins and traitors.

As Cato and Macro travel across the empire, they witness the horrors of war. They see cities burning, and they see people dying. But they never give up hope. They know that Otho is the rightful emperor, and they are determined to help him win the war.
