1. Cast on 56 stitches in scarlet yarn.
2. Knit 20 rows in rib stitch (knit 2, purl 2).
3. Decrease 6 stitches evenly across the row (knit together six pairs of stitches).
4. Knit 16 rows in stocking stitch (knit every row).
5. Bind off all stitches.

Assembly:

1. Sew the hat to the top of the body, leaving a small gap for stuffing.
2. Stuff the egg cosy with stuffing or cotton wool.
3. Sew up the gap in the hat.
4. Embroider the royal crest (optional).

Embroidering the Royal Crest

To complete the regal look, embroider the royal crest on the front of the egg cozy. You can use a simple cross-stitch or satin stitch technique to create the following design:

o | 0000000 + + |

o++o| | | | | | | | / + +
/ | |
/ + +
|_ | | _| - + + - / | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | \ + + / / | |
/ + +

/+ + _____ \

Tips for a Perfect Finish

- Use high-quality yarn to ensure durability and a soft texture.
- Knit tightly to prevent holes and maintain the shape of the egg cozy.
- Stuff the egg cozy evenly to achieve the desired plumpness.
- Consider embroidering the Queen's Guard's famous bearskin hat for an extra touch of authenticity.

Variations for Royal Customization

- Change the colors of the scarlet and navy blue yarn to create a different regiment.
- Add stripes or other decorative elements to the body.
- Knit a matching tea cozy for a coordinated breakfast ensemble.

: A Majestic Addition to Your Home
