In the aftermath of a tragic accident, three lives are forever changed. Shoot the Moonlight Out is a haunting and unforgettable novel that explores the themes of loss, grief, and redemption.

The story follows the lives of three characters:

- Cole, a young man who was driving the car when the accident happened. He is consumed by guilt and survivor's remorse.
- Liv, Cole's girlfriend, who was also in the car. She is struggling to cope with the physical and emotional scars of the accident.
- Hannah, the mother of one of the victims. She is a woman who is filled with anger and grief, but also a deep desire to find forgiveness.

As the three characters grapple with their own pain, they are slowly drawn together. They find comfort in each other's company, and they begin to heal. But the road to redemption is long and difficult, and there are many obstacles along the way.

Shoot the Moonlight Out is a powerful and moving novel that will stay with you long after you finish reading it. It is a story about the human capacity for love, loss, and forgiveness.
